- 17.3. The Company will process deposit and withdrawal requests promptly, subject to banking and payment system delays, applicable cut-off times, and verification requirements. The Company shall not be liable for delays, errors, or fees arising from third-party payment providers, banks, or intermediaries, provided it has acted with due skill, care and diligence.
- 17.4. The Company does not directly hold or process any cryptocurrencies, virtual currencies, or other virtual assets, nor does the Company perform any currency conversions directly. All such conversions are carried out by the Company's designated payment service providers. The Company is not responsible for the rates, fees, or charges applied by these providers. Any conversion of funds into or out of different currencies will be subject to the terms, conditions, and fees of the applicable provider, and the Company shall have no liability for such rates, costs, or charges.

- (i) Reverse the transaction; and/or
 - (ii) Deduct the overpaid or erroneously credited amount from the Client's account balance without prior notice.

If the Client's Account does not have sufficient funds to cover the overpaid amount, the Client agrees to promptly repay the outstanding sum upon demand by Taurex. Failure to do so may result in collection actions, and the client shall be responsible for any associated costs or fees incurred by Taurex in recovering such funds.

- 17.8. By entering into this Agreement, the client expressly authorizes Taurex to make such deductions or adjustments from their account balance in accordance with this Clause 17.

18. AI COACH

- 18.1 The Company makes available to Clients an AI-powered educational tool, the 'Taurex AI Coach' (the "AI Coach"), which delivers market information, trading education, and general financial literacy content through a conversational interface. The AI Coach processes publicly available market data, educational content, and user inputs to generate informational responses. The AI Coach, its features, functionality, and content may be updated, modified, or withdrawn at the Company's sole discretion without prior notice.

- 18.2 Access to the AI Coach is a discretionary feature and does not form part of the Company's core contractual services; nothing in this Clause 18 creates any entitlement to access or continued use. The Company may restrict, suspend, or withdraw a Client's access at any time without notice, including where it determines, in its sole discretion, that the Client's use breaches these Terms and Conditions or is otherwise inappropriate. By accessing or using the AI Coach, the Client confirms that they have read, understood, and accepted this Clause 18 in full.

- 18.3 The AI Coach is a purely educational tool. Nothing produced, generated, or communicated by or through the AI Coach constitutes investment, financial, trading, tax, legal, or any other form of regulated advice or recommendation, whether express or implied. The AI Coach does not take into account any Client's individual financial circumstances, investment objectives, risk appetite, experience, or needs.

- 18.4 Content generated by the AI Coach is for general informational and educational purposes only and must not be relied upon as the basis for any investment or trading decision. Before making any such decision, Clients should seek independent financial, legal, and tax advice from appropriately qualified and regulated professionals familiar with their individual circumstances. The Client assumes full and sole responsibility for all trading and investment decisions, whether or not informed or influenced by the AI Coach, and the Company expressly disclaims all responsibility and liability for any such decisions.

- 18.5 The AI Coach is provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis. The Company does not warrant or guarantee the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, or suitability of any content generated by the AI Coach, nor that the AI Coach will be available continuously, without interruption, or free from error, and disclaims all warranties of any kind, express or implied, including merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. Markets are volatile and past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results.
- 18.6 The Company shall bear no liability to any Client for any loss, damage, cost, or inconvenience arising from or in connection with: (i) any interruption, suspension, discontinuation, or unavailability of the AI Coach, whether planned or unplanned; (ii) any delay, failure, error, omission, or inaccuracy in its outputs; (iii) any technical failure, system outage, third-party service disruption, maintenance, or force majeure event; or (iv) any modification, update, or withdrawal of the AI Coach or any feature thereof. Where any Applicable Law and Regulations restrict the limitation of liability, the Company's liability shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted.

- 22.5. The aggregate liability of the Company and its Affiliates shall not exceed the fees that Customer has paid under this Agreement during the thirty (30) days immediately preceding the date on which Customer first asserts the applicable claim.
- 22.6. The Company will not be held responsible for any loss or damage caused, directly, indirectly, by any events, actions or omissions beyond our control including, without limitation, loss or damage resulting, directly or indirectly, from any delays or inaccuracies in the transmission of orders and/or information due to a breakdown in, delay or failure of any transmission, communication or computing facilities.

involved. Additionally, we reserve the right, in our sole and absolute discretion, to correct any instances where the Client has been undercharged or overcharged any fees, including but not limited to swap fees, commissions, or other transactional charges, and to recover or refund such amounts accordingly. Any dispute arising from such quoting, execution, fee, or other errors will be resolved by us in our sole and absolute discretion.

- 22.9. Internet Connectivity delays and price feed errors sometimes create a situation where the prices displayed on the trading platform or liquidity connection do not accurately reflect the market rates. We do not permit the practice of latency arbitrage or taking advantage of these internet delays. Transactions that rely on price latency arbitrage opportunities may be revoked. We reserve the right to make the necessary corrections or adjustments on the Account involved in our sole and absolute discretion. Please consult the “Market Abuse and Prohibited Trading Practices” clause herein for more details.
- 22.10. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the use of Expert Advisors (EAs), copy trading, signal providers, automated trading systems, or any other marketed products, third-party or Company software or other such tools (whether provided by the Company or a third-party) in connection with their trading account (collectively referred to as “Trading Tools”) is entirely at the Client's own risk. The Company does not guarantee the performance, functionality, or accuracy of any Trading Tools used by the Client. The Company shall not be held liable for any losses, damages, or adverse financial consequences resulting from the use of any Trading Tools, including but not limited to execution errors, software malfunctions, performance, latency or any other delay, market conditions, and any inherent risk associated with using the Trading Tools.
- 22.11. We shall have no obligation to contact you to advise upon appropriate action in light of changes in market conditions or otherwise. The foreign exchange market is highly speculative and volatile. Following execution of any transaction, you are solely responsible for making and maintaining contact with us for the purpose of monitoring the Position and ensuring that any further instructions are given on a timely basis. We shall not be responsible for any loss caused directly, indirectly, actually or alleged as a result of any inability or failure by you to do so.
- 22.12. You acknowledge that:
- (i) Any market information or third-party products marketed to you by or through us or any Affiliate does not constitute advice or an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any rolling spot foreign exchange contract;
 - (ii) Such information or recommendations made by a third party, although based upon information obtained from sources believed by us to be reliable, may be based solely or partly on a third party's opinion and that such information may be incomplete and may be unverified; and
 - (iii) We make no representation, warranty or guarantee as to, and shall not be responsible for, the accuracy or completeness of any information or recommendation furnished to you by a third party. You acknowledge that we make no representations concerning the tax implications or treatment of transactions entered into by you.

- 22.13. The Company may make available various payment channels to facilitate deposits and withdrawals. These channels are provided by independent payment service providers, and the Company does not control or assume responsibility for the underlying processes of those providers. The Company's responsibility is strictly limited to crediting fiat funds actually received into the Client's trading account and, where applicable, returning funds to the original depositing source. The Company shall not be liable for any delays, errors, or disputes arising from the operation of external payment channels or the methods by which funds are transmitted.
- 22.14. Nothing in this Section shall exclude or limit the Company's obligations to hold Client Money in accordance with Applicable Laws and Regulations. Client Money remains segregated and held on trust at all times, save where the such funds are received or qualify as Operational Amounts.

23. RIGHTS OF SET-OFF

- 23.1. Subject to Clause 24 (Negative Balance Protection), if any losses incurred by us, monies owed to us, or debit balances in relation to your Account (including without limitation, a negative balance on your Account) exceed all amounts held by us in relation to that Account, you must pay such excess to us whether demanded or not.
- 23.2. To the extent permitted under Applicable Law and Regulations and without prejudice to any other rights to which we may be entitled, we have the right to deduct (set-off) any money, profits, and/or liability that you owe us or our Affiliates:
- (a) From the money in your Account; and/or
 - (b) by closing any or all of your open Positions, whether at a loss or at a profit, and subsequently liquidating your Account for the liability payable by you.
- 23.3. If you have more than one Account, we have the right to set-off any money or liability that you owe us under one Account from the money available in your other Accounts, or by closing any or all of your open Positions, whether at a loss or at a profit, and subsequently liquidating your other Accounts.
- 23.4. Where we reasonably suspect that you have colluded with other clients to conduct improper or unfair trading practices, or are involved in some form of Market Abuse (including but not limited to the forms of Market Abuse detailed in Clause 30), we may similarly set-off any money or liability available in your Accounts in accordance with this Clause 23.
- 23.5. As continuing security for the performance of your obligations, you grant the Company a first-ranking pledge over Client Assets and Client Money held in your Accounts. Until such enforcement, Client Money remains segregated and held on trust, unless informed otherwise, and Client Assets remain the property of the Client. For the avoidance of doubt, Operational Amounts are not considered 'Client Assets' or 'Client Money'.

- 23.6. We have the right to set-off any money or liability that you owe us under one Account against the balance available in your other Accounts, or from the proceeds of the sale of products that we hold for you in your other Accounts.

24. NEGATIVE BALANCE PROTECTION

- 24.1. The Company provides negative balance protection (“NBP”) to Clients, subject to the limitations and conditions set out in this Agreement. NBP ensures that a Client cannot lose more than the funds deposited into their account, and where a Client’s account balance falls below zero as a result of trading activity, the balance shall be reset to zero, provided the Company’s trading systems and NBP plugin are functioning correctly.
- 24.2. NBP is currently available only for accounts in jurisdictions designated by the Company. In other jurisdictions, negative balances are handled manually by the Company on a case-by-case basis. The Company reserves the right to extend or limit NBP coverage to additional jurisdictions at its discretion.
- 24.3. The Company may set thresholds or limits on NBP (for example, negative balances up to USD 500 may be automatically reset, whereas balances in excess of such limit will be reviewed and addressed manually).
- 24.4. NBP shall not apply where the Company reasonably determines that trading activity involves fraud, market abuse, use of abusive strategies (including but not limited to latency arbitrage), or any other prohibited practices under this Agreement. In such cases, the Client shall remain fully liable for all losses and any negative balance.
- 24.5. The operation of NBP does not affect the Client’s obligation to maintain sufficient margin in their Account at all times, or the Company’s right to close out Positions where margin requirements are not met.

25. VPS (VIRTUAL PRIVATE SERVER) SERVICES

- 25.1. The Company offers Virtual Private Server (VPS) services to eligible Clients globally. Eligibility for each VPS service plan is determined based on trading activity thresholds, as published on the Company’s website. Clients who meet the qualifying thresholds may purchase the VPS service at a discounted rate, the price and discount of which are set by the Company and may be changed at the Company’s sole and absolute discretion from time to time.

26. CURRENCY and PRICE FLUCTUATIONS

- 26.1. If Client directs the Company to enter into any foreign exchange transaction:
- (a) Any profit or loss arising as a result of a fluctuation in the exchange rate affecting such currency will be entirely for Client's Account and risk;

- (b) All initial and subsequent deposits for margin purposes shall be made in U.S Dollars, or another currency which the Company may choose to accept, in such amounts as the Company may in its sole discretion require, with subsequent deposits being in the same currency as the initial deposit;
- (c) The Company is authorized to convert funds in Client's Account for margin into and from such foreign currency at a rate of exchange determined by the Company in its sole discretion on the basis of the prevailing money market rates.
- (d) Any negative Equity caused by the price gaps either at the opening or during market hours, Client agrees to fulfil all the negative Equity in his Account by the time the Positions are liquidated.

27. CONFLICT of INTEREST

- 27.1. Taurex and its Affiliates provide services in respect of a wide range of investment related activities to many different clients, some of which we or another Taurex affiliated entity may have an interest, relationship or arrangement that is material in relation to a transaction effected with or for you (or the investment that is the subject of the transaction) or that could give rise to a conflict of interest.
- 27.2. We shall not be obliged to disclose to You or take into consideration any fact, matter or finding that might involve a breach of duty or confidence to any other person, or that comes to the notice of any of our directors, officers, employees or agents but does not come to the actual notice of the individual or individuals dealing with You.

28. SWAP-FREE ACCOUNTS

- 28.1. Leveraged CFD and Forex contracts enable clients to trade on margin without having to hold sufficient funds to cover the full contract value of their Position(s). When a trade is opened, an initial deposit requirement is calculated as a proportion of the full contract value and must be held as cleared funds within the dealing Account. Therefore, each trade carries with it an element of lending or borrowing, reflecting the difference between the full contract value and the notional value. Financing, interest, and/or swaps, are applied to open Positions daily at the close of business as a consequence of trading on margin.
- 28.2. If a Client cannot pay or receive financing, interest, or swaps due to their observance of Islamic religious beliefs, or where the Client is a resident of a swap-free eligible jurisdiction, they may request a 'Swap-Free Account'.
- 28.3. Swap-free accounts are available in certain jurisdictions as determined by the Company from time to time. For more details regarding eligible jurisdictions and availability, please reach out to your account manager.

- 28.4. All Clients of Islamic faith are eligible to receive a swap-free account for a given period of calendar days, to be determined by the Company. The Company may, at its sole and absolute discretion, elect to shorten or extend the period for which the swap-free account is offered to the Client. The Company reserves the right to request adequate justification and/or proof of the necessity or need for such an account type. The Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, for any reason whatsoever, and without justification or explanation, to refuse a request to convert an Account to swap-free status.
- 28.5. Furthermore, the Company reserves the right to revoke the swap-free status granted to any real trading Account at any time without being obliged to provide any explanation or justification, and in its sole discretion close any open Positions and/or the Account(s). Such action may be taken based on, but is not limited to, the following criteria: the Client's trading history, products traded, market conditions, and the length of time that trades are held open.
- 28.6. Furthermore, in the event that the Company, in its opinion, detects any form of abuse, fraud, manipulation, 'interest'/'cash-back arbitrage', or any other form of deceitful or fraudulent activity in regard to any and all swap-free Accounts held by the Client, the Company reserves the right, without prior verbal or written notice, at any time, to take the following actions:
- (i) With immediate effect, to revoke the swap-free status from any and all real trading Accounts of such Client;
 - (ii) correct and recover any un-accrued Swaps and any related un-accrued interest expenses and/or costs pertaining to any and all of such Client's swap-free trading Accounts during the period for which such Accounts were live;
 - (iii) apply a commission, swap, or other fee to any open or new Positions;
 - (iv) convert any swap-free Accounts to normal trading Accounts;
 - (v) prohibit or limit hedging Positions; and/or
 - (vi) with immediate effect, close all trading Accounts held by the Client with the Company, nullify all trades carried out in the Client's trading Accounts with the Company and cancel any and all profits or losses garnered in Client's trading Accounts with the Company.

The Customer hereby acknowledges that he/she shall bear all costs derived from the aforementioned actions, including but not limited to, the cost of the change of the spread.

29. TERMINATION

- 29.1. Unless terminated by the Company in accordance with Clause 29.3, this Agreement shall remain in effect unless and until terminated either by the Client or the Company on providing at least 5 (five) calendar days written notice to the other.

- 29.2. The Client may terminate this Agreement, in accordance with Clause 29.1, and close his or her Account at any time if each of the following conditions are fulfilled:
- (a) All of Client's trades are closed;
 - (b) Client has no liabilities held by or owed to the Company;
 - (c) The Company receives written request to terminate; and
 - (d) No new trades are opened before the Client's Account is closed by the Company.
- 29.3. Without limiting any other rights the Company may have under this Agreement, the Company may, at its sole discretion and without prior notice, immediately terminate this Agreement and/or any Account, or suspend or restrict the Client's access to the Company's trading platform(s), where any of the following circumstances arise or the Company reasonably suspects that they may arise:
- (a) the Client has failed to make any payment or deposit funds required to meet their Obligations (including, without limitation, any margin obligations) under this Agreement;
 - (b) the Client has breached, or is reasonably suspected of having breached, any of the representations, warranties, covenants, or undertakings made by them under this Agreement;
 - (c) the Client has triggered, or is reasonably suspected of having triggered, an Event of Default;

 - (f) the Company reasonably suspects or determines that the Client has used, is using, or has attempted to use any virtual private network (VPN), virtual private server (VPS), proxy, or other device, software, or technology to conceal, obscure, or falsify their true identity, location, or IP address, or to provide false, inaccurate, or misleading information to the Company in order to (i) operate multiple accounts under different names using the same VPS IP or setup; (ii) abuse bonuses or other promotions offered by the Company; (iii) carry out the forms of market abuse and/or prohibited trading practices described within this Agreement;
 - (g) the Client fails to meet the Company's applicable risk assessment criteria or otherwise falls outside the Company's acceptable risk profile. Such determination shall be made by the Company in its sole and absolute discretion;

- (h) you have failed to comply with any of your other agreements with Taurex or may cause or have caused us to breach any of our agreements with our service providers, banks, financial institutions, or regulatory bodies; or
- (i) the Client has materially breached any term of this Agreement.

The above circumstances are non-exhaustive, and termination may also occur on any other ground specified elsewhere in this Agreement or as permitted by Applicable Laws and Regulations. In such circumstances, the Company may, at its discretion, request additional information from the Client, decline to approve or cancel any application or transaction, reverse or void any trade, make appropriate adjustments or set-offs in respect of any amounts owed by or to the Client, and/or exercise any other rights or remedies available under this Agreement or at law;

- 29.4. Termination by either Party will not affect any obligation which has already been incurred by either Party in respect to any open Position or any legal rights or obligations which may already have arisen under this Agreement, or any transactions and deposit/withdrawal operations made thereunder.
- 29.5. Upon termination of this Agreement, all amounts payable by the Client to the Company will become immediately due and payable, including (without limitation):
 - (a) All outstanding costs, fees, payments made in error, and/or any other amounts payable to the Company, which the Company may recover by setting off the Client's liabilities owed to the Company against the balances in the Client's Account(s);
 - (b) any dealing expenses incurred by terminating the Agreement and charges incurred for transferring back the Client's investments and any other related fees;
 - (c) any losses and expenses realized in closing out any transactions or settling or concluding outstanding obligations incurred by the Company on the Client's behalf;
 - (d) any charges and additional expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Company as a result of the termination of the Agreement;
 - (e) any damages which arose during the arrangement or settlement of pending obligations.
- 29.6. Once notice of termination of this Agreement is sent or upon termination, the following shall apply:
 - (a) The Client will have an obligation to close all his open Positions. If he fails to do so, upon termination, the Company will close any open Positions at current quotes;
 - (b) the Company will be entitled to cease to grant the Client access to the trading platform or may limit the functionalities the Client is allowed to use on the trading platform;
 - (c) the Company will be entitled to refuse to open new Positions for the Client;

- (d) the Company will be entitled to refuse to the Client to withdraw money from the Client Account and the Company reserves the right to keep Client's funds as necessary to close Positions which have already been opened and/or pay any pending obligations of the Client under the Agreement.

29.7. Upon termination, the Company shall have the following rights:

- (a) The Company has the right to combine any Accounts of the Client, to consolidate the balances in such Client Accounts and to set off those balances with obligations of the Client towards the Company;
- (b) the Company has the right to close the Client Account(s);
- (c) the Company has the right to convert any currency;
- (d) the Company has the right to close out the Client's open Positions at current quotes;
- (e) in absence of illegal activity or suspected illegal activity of the Client or instructions from the relevant authorities, if there is positive Equity in the Client's Account(s), the Company will (after withholding such amounts that in the Company's absolute discretion considers appropriate in respect of future liabilities of the Client towards the Company) pay such Equity to the Client as soon as reasonably practicable and supply him with a statement showing how that Equity figure was arrived at and, where appropriate, instruct any nominee or/and any custodian to also pay any applicable amounts. Such funds shall be delivered in accordance with the Client's instructions to the Company. It is understood that the Company will affect payments only to an Account in the Client's name. The Company has the right to refuse, at its discretion, to effect third party payments.

29.8. The Company reserves the right, at its sole and absolute discretion and for any reason whatsoever, to change Client's Account type upon giving three (3) days' written notice (the "Account Change Notice Period"). As part of the Account change, Client may select an Account type from the Account options provided by the Company. If the Company does not receive Client's agreement to change the Account type during the Account Change Notice Period, then the Company may suspend or close Client's Account immediately upon the expiration of the Account Change Notice Period. As a condition of moving to the new Account type, Client shall be required to accept the Terms & Conditions that are applicable to the new Account before they can continue their trading activity.

30. MARKET ABUSE and PROHIBITED TRADING PRACTICES

30.1. The existence of any and all forms of market abuse and/or prohibited trading practices, including but not limited to the forms of abuse listed below, are to be determined by Taurex in its sole and absolute discretion. The Company strictly prohibits such conduct by its clients and considers any engagement in the following activities (among others) to potentially constitute market abuse and/or prohibited trading practices:

- (a) Scalping: Clients are prohibited from engaging in rapid buying and selling of financial instruments within short timeframes to profit from price movements. Such practices disrupt market integrity and are considered abusive.
- (b) Insider Trading: Clients are strictly forbidden from trading based on non-public, material information. Insider trading undermines market fairness and is illegal under Applicable Laws and Regulations.
- (c) Swap-Free Abuse: Clients must adhere to the terms and conditions of swap-free Accounts without engaging in manipulative practices aimed at exploiting this feature for unfair advantage. Any misuse of swap-free Accounts shall be considered abusive behavior.
- (d) Spoofing: Clients are prohibited from placing orders with the intent to cancel them before execution to deceive other market participants. Spoofing distorts market prices and is considered market manipulation.
- (e) Churning: Clients are prohibited from excessive trading in their Accounts solely for the purpose of generating commissions or fees. Clients are also prohibited from depositing funds into their accounts and withdrawing such funds (or part thereof) without trading reasonably commensurate with such deposits; the Company reserves the right to claim from the Client, or deduct from their Account, any third-party payments arising from activity of this nature.
- (f) Arbitrage: Clients are prohibited from exploiting price discrepancies across different markets or platforms in a manner that undermines market integrity. This also includes but is not limited to Clients who take advantage of price movements in the market by acting in unison with other parties or by exploiting any latency across systems.
- (g) Expert Advisors: use, or suspected use (as determined by Taurex), of Expert Advisors, or EAs, to carry out any market abuse, prohibited trading practices, automated simultaneous trade submission, or exploit platform vulnerabilities as set out in this Agreement;
- (h) Liquidity Exploitation: entering, building, or closing positions during periods of materially reduced liquidity, including without limitation the overnight session, weekends, holidays, and around news events, in a manner that seeks to profit from reduced liquidity, latency, or price anomalies and is not consistent with normal trading practices;
- (i) For the purposes of participation in any Bonus Program, and more generally if determined by the Company, carrying out any of the following (which is a non-exhaustive list): multiple trading accounts placing trades from the same IP address, operating single or multiple accounts (including The Company's accounts or between different brokers) for arbitrage, high-frequency trading, malicious hedging, trading oversized positions during trading hours, putting accounts under single exposure with multiple similar trades, trading products that are too concentrated and pose a high-risk condition, or where more than 70% of the account's net exposure is concentrated on specific products or maintains a fixed trading direction.

- 30.2. The Company reserves the right to take appropriate action, including but not limited to Account suspension, termination, correcting, deducting, set-off, recovering, and/or applying costs to any amounts generated from any form of market abuse/prohibited trading practices, termination of any promotions, and legal proceedings, against any Client found to be engaging in market abuse activities/prohibited trading practices. Upon determining that abuse or prohibited trading practices have or likely to have occurred, we may: retroactively claw back profits and deduct reasonable investigation costs from your Account without prior notice and/or subject withdrawals to a review period lasting up to 48 hours before payment is made in order to enable the Company to confirm that any profits generated by the Client comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You agree to repay any additional costs within 7 days. You further agree that the Company may deduct the claw back amounts from the balance in your account(s). Clients are responsible for familiarizing themselves with and complying with all relevant laws, regulations, and the Company's policies regarding market conduct.

31. INACTIVITY FEE AND ACCOUNT CLOSURE

- 31.1. Where no Activity has occurred on Client's Account for 90 calendar days or more, your Account will be considered inactive. Any balance that is retained by the Company on an Inactive Account is non-refundable.

32.2. Where the Client wishes to have its Account managed by a third party, the Client must submit a Limited Power of Attorney between the Client and the Attorney to the Company. What shall be deemed an acceptable document for this purpose shall be determined by the Company in its sole and absolute discretion. By furnishing the Company with a Limited Power of Attorney, the Client grants consent and authorizes the Company to share with the Attorney all information in the Company's possession concerning the Client's Account.

32.3. The Client agrees to reimburse the Company for any loss, damage or expense incurred by the Company as a result of:

- (a) The Company's execution of instructions from the Attorney that exceed the authority granted in the Limited Power of Attorney; or
- (b) The Attorney's breach of any term of the Limited Power of Attorney.

32.4. Where the Client agrees to compensate the Attorney directly from the Account, the Company may deduct funds from the Client's Account(s) for deposit into the Attorney's account as payment for agreed fees, including performance fees calculated on a high-watermark basis.

32.5. The Client authorizes the Company to accept all instructions given to it by the Attorney, whether orally or in writing, in relation to the Account(s). The Company is authorized, but not required to, conduct further inquiry or seek authorization from the Client or further clarification from Attorney or Client regarding any instruction from Attorney for Client's Account(s).

- 32.6. ROLE OF TAUREX - DISCLAIMER AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY: CLIENT ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT THE ATTORNEY WAS SELECTED SOLELY BY CLIENT AND HAS NOT BEEN RECOMMENDED, VETTED OR ENDORSED BY TAUREX. - 32.7. Client and Attorney agree to indemnify and hold the Company, its affiliates, successors, assigns, and their respective directors, officers, employees, and managers harmless from all claims, actions, costs, and liabilities, including attorney's fees, arising from their reliance on this Authorization, execution of Attorney's instructions, any breach of Agreement, or the performance/non-performance of Attorney's services. This includes any trades or actions by the Attorney or sub-manager in Client's Account(s), and any dispute involving the Attorney, sub-manager, or Client. The Company's rights under this indemnification are in addition to those in other agreements with Client and/or Attorney.
- 32.8. Client's Attorney is independent from the Company and is not an employee or an agent of the Company. The Company is not liable for the trading decisions or actions of the Attorney and the Client agrees not to bring lawsuits or claims of any kind against the Company for actions or trading decisions of the Client's Attorney.
- 32.9. The Company hereby notifies the Client that the Attorney is not an employee, fund manager, or representative of the Company and further that the Attorney does not have any power or authority to act on behalf of the Company or bind the Company in any way.
- 32.10. The Client acknowledges and agrees that, by granting the Attorney access to the Company's online trading system, the Company reserves the right to impose limits, controls, parameters, or other restrictions on the Attorney's use of the system. The Client further accepts that, if the Company decides not to impose such limits or controls, or if those limits or controls fail for any reason, the Company will not oversee or control the instructions provided by the Attorney. The Client acknowledges that it will remain liable for all instructions given to the Company prior to the revocation being effective and will be responsible for any losses incurred on any Positions that are open at such time. The Client remains liable for all fees due until the termination date. The Client assumes full control of the Account upon termination.

33. INTRODUCING BROKERS, FUND MANAGERS, AND SERVICE PROVIDERS

- 33.1. Where the Client has been referred to the Company by an introducing broker, fund manager, or has used a third-party system, course, program, software, or trading platform provided by a service provider of the Company, the Company shall not be liable for any promises, advice, or agreements made between the Client and the Client's introducing broker, fund manager, or service provider. The Client acknowledges that these parties are not authorized to make any representations regarding the Company or its services.
- 33.2. Where the Client has been referred to the Company by an introducing broker, the Client may be eligible to receive a portion of the introducing broker's earned rebates. The introducing broker may, at their discretion, choose to provide cashback to the Client and may determine the percentage of the rebates that will be allocated for this purpose. The introducing broker may also elect to offer different cashback percentages for different Clients or Accounts.
- 33.3. Introducing brokers are under no obligation to provide cashback to any Client and may elect, at their discretion, to offer or withhold cashback at any time, based on their individual arrangement with the Client.
- 33.4. The Company makes no representations for the accuracy or completeness of any information, advice, or product that the Client may have received or may receive in the future from an introducing broker, fund manager, and/or service provider.
- 33.5. The Client understands and acknowledges that the introducing broker, fund manager, and/or service provider may not be regulated by any government agency or regulatory authority, and the Company does not endorse or vouch for the services offered by these parties. It is the Client's responsibility to assess the introducing broker, fund manager, and/or service provider before using their services.
- 33.6. The Client's agreement with its introducing broker, fund manager and/or service provider may result in additional costs for the Client as the Company may pay fees or commissions to such person or entity directly from the Client's Account. Such fees or commissions may be paid based upon the Client's trading activity and withdrawn from the Client's Account. The payment of such compensation to the introducing broker, fund manager, and/or the service provider may result in the Client being subject to a mark-up, beyond the spreads normally imposed by the Company. The Client, alongside the introducing broker, fund manager, and/or service provider, as applicable, are entirely responsible for assessing and determining whether the fees charged in relation to their trading activity are suitable for the Client. The Company strictly acts as a custodian and execution broker, and is not responsible for the commissions, fees, and/or charges paid by the Client.

34. CASHBACK to INTRODUCED CLIENTS

34.1. Clients introduced to the Company by an Introducing Broker (“IB”) may be eligible to receive cashback as a portion of the rebates and commissions payable to their IB. This cashback feature is discretionary and may be enabled solely at the IB’s election upon receipt of payment from the Company.

34.2. Where enabled, any cashback amount due to the Client will be credited directly to the Client’s wallet with the Company. The specific percentage of cashback shall be determined and communicated by the IB. The Company assumes no responsibility or liability for the payment, timing, or calculation of cashback beyond depositing such amounts into the Client’s wallet as instructed by the IB.

35. DISCRETIONARY ACCOUNTS

35.1. The Client acknowledges that neither the Company nor its staff trade on a discretionary basis. If a staff member of the Company approaches the client to trade the client Account on a discretionary basis the clients must reject such an offer and inform the Company immediately.

36. GOVERNING LAW and JURISDICTION

36.1. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Seychelles. The Client hereby submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Seychelles.

37. PREVAILING LANGUAGE AND SEVERABILITY

37.1. If any of the terms or conditions set forth within this Agreement were to be translated into a language other than English, then the English version will be controlling in all respects and will prevail in the event of discrepancies and/or inconsistencies between the English and translated versions, if any. Client hereby agrees that under no circumstances shall the Company be responsible for any damage or loss caused by any error, inaccuracy, misunderstanding, or misspelling resulting from or related to translations of this Agreement.

37.2. If any provision of these Terms is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be deemed severed from these Terms and shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

38. RISK DISCLOSURE and CLIENT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

38.1. The risk of loss in investing in leverage (margin) traded markets can be substantial. Leverage can amplify losses (e.g. a 1% market move on 100:1 leverage could wipe out your deposit). You should carefully consider whether such investments are suitable for you in the light of your circumstances and financial resources.

38.2. If you have pursued only conservative forms of investment in the past, you should study currency trading further before continuing an investment of this nature. You could lose all funds you deposit as initial margin as well as substantial amounts of capital when trading currencies if the market goes against your investment. You may also be liable for losses that exceed the amount of margin you post. If you wish to continue with your investment, you confirm that the funds you have committed are purely risk capital and loss of your investment will not jeopardize your style of living nor will it detract from your future retirement program. Additionally, you fully understand the nature and risks of currency investments, and your obligations to others will not be neglected should you suffer investment losses.

38.3. You should be aware in particular of the following points:

1. Leverage

High Leverage and low Margin can result in significant losses due to small price fluctuations in the traded products. High Leverage allows the Customer to assume more risk, magnifying both losses and profits; which can result in loss up to and in excess of Deposits and Margin. The Customer must consider that if the trend on the market is against him/her the Customer may sustain a total loss of the initial margin funds and any additional funds deposited to maintain open Positions. The Customer is responsible for all his/her risks, financial resources he/she uses and for the chosen trading strategy.

2. Market Risk

Because of sharp and substantial changes in currency rates the Client's orders may be executed at the rates which differ significantly from stated in the orders. For example, in the case when the price breaks out of the trading range and leaves on the chart an empty space with no trading activity (such situation is called gap). The order will be executed at the price first appeared after gap. Likewise placing orders for reducing losses/profits may be inefficient as market conditions may make it impossible to execute these orders.

3. Technical Risk

The Client accepts the risk caused by software or telecommunications facilities failures as well as by other technical problems. The Company is not responsible for Client's losses sustained due to non-observance of instructions included in the Ghost Trader client terminal user guide. The Client accepts the risk of executing unplanned trading transactions in the case of repeating an order before the last order processing results were received. The Client must keep passwords and ensure that third parties will not have access to the trading system. The Client will be subject to the trading obligation, assumed by him/her on the one part and by the Company on the other part, executed using Client's password even if the password was used by a third party. The Client realizes that the information en Clair (sent via email, instant messenger service) is not protected from unauthorized access.

4. Force Majeure

The Company is not responsible for Client's losses sustained due to force majeure such as (included but not limited to): acts of wars, riots, civil disorders, labor disputes, blockades, embargoes, terrorist activities, civil insurrection, rebellions or revolutions natural disasters, financial market trading stops, currency interventions, government decisions, instability on financial markets with rapid drops of liquidity, and other significant changes of counter agents working process or any other similar cause beyond the reasonable control of such party.

The brief statement above does not disclose all the risks of investment in margin trading markets. You should be responsible and carefully consider such investment before you commit funds for trading on margin.

38.4. The Client acknowledges that:

1. The client confirms and agrees that he/she has read all the pages and understood the Client Agreement, Risk Disclosure Statement and acknowledges it.
2. They are the beneficial owner of all monies deposited with the Company and, if not wholly owned then Client will request approval from the Company.
3. They confirm that it does not have any disputed Accounts or unsolved issues.
4. The Client confirms that all information provided pursuant to this Agreement is accurate and true.

Orders or instructions given by you via e-mail, phone, or other accepted electronic means, will constitute evidence of the Orders or instructions given.
- 39.2. Acceptance of these Terms or other documents including the Company's policies via electronic means such as, but not limited to, tick box on the Website and Portal, or acceptance through email or on the Platform shall constitute evidence of your acceptance of these Terms, policies, and other legal documents, respectively.
- 39.3. The Company may from time to time update its Terms and Conditions, policies, and other agreements. The latest version of the Terms will be posted on our website (www.tradetaurex.com).
